Checklist of Supporting Documents for

Tripartite Standards Adoption 2

Tripartite Standards Adoption

1. Are there any supporting documents required to adopt the Tripartite Standards?

- At the moment Employers do not need to submit supporting documentation when applying to adopt the Tripartite Standards.
- The Tripartite Standards application form includes a checkbox for the organisation to declare that it has fully met all the requirements of the Tripartite Standards.
- Before adopting the Tripartite Standards, we would encourage employers to review existing practices and ascertain that your organisation has met the practices specified for each of the respective Tripartite Standards.
- Employers may learn more about each Tripartite Standards here:

2. Are there any verification checks or audits conducted by TAFEP or Tripartite Partners as part of the process to adopt the Tripartite Standards?

- The Tripartite Standards (TS) specifies a set of actionable and verifiable HR practices that are required to be implemented.
- The Tripartite Standards is based on employers self-assessment to understand and verify that they have met all specifications.
- Employers may review the Practices required and FAQs for further details:
