

Mr Melvin Yong Yik Chye
Co-Chairman, WSH Council (Engagement and Outreach) Committee
Assistant Secretary-General, National Trades Union Congress (NTUC) – Administration and Research Unit
Director, U Associate
Executive Secretary, National Transport Workers' Union
Executive Secretary, United Workers of Electronics & Electrical Industries

Mr Melvin Yong has been with the National Trades Union Congress (NTUC) since September 2015 and is currently the Assistant Secretary-General of its Administration and Research Unit (ARU). He also serves as Director, U Associate and is the Executive Secretary of both the National Transport Workers' Union and the United Workers of Electronics & Electrical Industries.

Mr Yong was elected as a Member of Parliament for the Tanjong Pagar Group Representative Constituency in 2015. He is also a Member of the Health, Social and Family Development, and Transport Government Parliamentary Committees of the second term of the 13th Parliament.

Mr Yong was awarded the Singapore Police Force Scholarship in 1992 to study Accountancy at the Nanyang Technological University. In 2005, he graduated with a Master of Science in Criminal Justice from the University of Leicester.

Quote: "Workplace safety and health is the responsibility of all stakeholders. Together, we can take a proactive approach to identifying hazards and putting a stop to workplace incidents. The Labour Movement is committed to working closely with our partners to ensure our workers go home safe, and that they are also healthy to be able to perform their duties well, both at work and at home."