

Mr Melvin Yong Yik Chye
MP for Radin Mas SMC
Chairman, WSH Council (Engagement and Outreach)
Committee
Assistant Secretary-General and Director (NTUC Care
Division), National Trades Union Congress (NTUC)
Executive Secretary, National Transport Workers' Union
(NTWU)

Mr Melvin Yong has been with the National Trades Union Congress (NTUC) since 2015. He is currently the Assistant Secretary-General of the National Trades Union Congress (NTUC) and Director of the NTUC's Care Division which oversees the development and implementation of the Progressive Wage Model (PWM) in seven sectors, including Cleaning, Landscape and Security.

Mr Yong is also the Executive Secretary of the National Transport Workers' Union, and an Adviser to the United Workers of Electronics & Electrical Industries and the Housing and Development Board Staff Union.

Mr Yong is an elected Member of the Singapore Parliament for the Radin Mas Single Member Constituency and chairs the Tanjong Pagar Town Council since 2015. He is Deputy Chairman of the Government Parliamentary Committee for Transport, a Board Member of the Land Transport Authority (LTA) and chairs the LTA's Communications and Community Engagement Committee.

As a passionate advocate for workplace safety and health, Mr Yong is a member of the Workplace Safety and Health Council and chairs the Council's Engagement and Outreach Committee.

Mr Yong is also President of the Consumers Association of Singapore (CASE) and a Board Director of the Financial Industry Disputes Resolution Centre (FIDReC).

Quote: "Workplace safety and health is the responsibility of all stakeholders. Together, we can take a proactive approach to identifying hazards and putting a stop to workplace incidents. The Labour Movement is committed to working closely with our partners to ensure our workers go home safe, and that they are also healthy to be able to perform their duties well, both at work and at home."